UNIFORM POLICY

It is compulsory for students to wear the Girton Grammar School uniform. It must be worn in the correct manner with a sense of pride in their School, reflecting the high standards for which the School community strives.

All students are required to be in School uniform when in attendance on all School days. Further, the uniform is required when a student is participating in any School function including performances, games and excursions.

The appropriate Sports/Physical Education uniforms are to be worn at Sports and Physical Education classes.

Senior School students are not permitted to travel to or from School in their Sports/Physical Education uniforms unless they are they are representing Girton in sport, in events such as Sandhurst or ICCES tournaments.

Here are the basic uniform and personal presentation requirements for all students:

HAIR

- Brushed/combed and neat.

- No dye.
- No faddish styles.
- Girls' long hair must be tied back, off the face.
- Burgundy or navy ribbons only.
- Boys' hair must not be longer than the top of the collar and off the face.
- Boys are not permitted to have "knots" or ponytails.

JEWELLERY

- Girls may wear one small plain stud earring or sleeper in each earlobe.
- No other jewellery is permitted.
- A wrist watch is permitted.
- School badges are to be worn on the blazer lapels or summer shirts and dresses where appropriate.

TATTOOS

- Tattoos are not permitted.

NAILS

- Clean and trimmed.
- No nail polish, enamel etc.

MAKE UP

- No makeup is permitted.

SHOES

- Clean, well polished, laces tied.

GENERAL

- Uniform should be clean and ironed.
- All clothing is to be named.

The essence of the rules is that Girton Grammar School students should be excellently presented without focus on personal vanity. Parents and Teachers play an important role in guiding students in the right attitudes towards uniform and personal presentation.

Verbal warnings, uniform notifications, detentions or other penalties may be given for a breach of the Uniform Policy. Once notified, action is expected of parents to direct a student to rectify the uniform issue as soon as is practical. As in all matters, the Head of the School is the final arbiter of all matters pertaining to school uniform and personal presentation.

Any queries regarding uniform can be directed to your Head of House or the Director of Student Wellbeing and Pastoral Care, who has the specific responsibility to ensure student compliance with regard to uniforms, along with the Heads of House and staff. If parents have difficulty meeting the requirements of uniform please contact your Head of House.
